

Kentucky Equal Justice Center-Employment Law Project Update
Board Meeting-May 1, 2018
McKenzie Cantrell-Employment Law Attorney

Community Education

- Recording radio update: We're back to recording content in Spanish and English with different workers' rights content each month. Corinna researches and edits the shows. We recorded an episode this morning!
- Wage claim clinic slower during winter but several attended this April, including a scheduled appointment this afternoon.
- Miranda and I speaking later this month to Princeton group on immigrant rights as they affect workers in the horse industry.

Networking and Coalition Building

- Workers' Rights Task Force- the team has not yet met to discuss next meeting, but next meeting should be in the works soon. Topics will most likely include recent legislative session and emerging employment law topics.
- Catching up with partners on Lexington fair contracting ordinance and other policy-related projects.

Litigation

- Co-counsel case with Trent and his law firm against Louisville restaurant settled at end of 2017- All checks and post-settlement matters have been handled.
- New co-counseling case with Trent against another Louisville restaurant recently filed.
- Human trafficking civil case in Lexington still ongoing
